Lois Rudnick

Mable Dodge Luhan and Company: American Moderns and the West

Mabel Dodge Luhan (1879–1962) was a political, social, and cultural visionary; salon hostess; and collector of genius in almost every field of modernism. Luhan spent her adult life building utopian communities, a notable one being located in Taos, the “New World” (1918–47), bringing together a community of artists, writers, and social reformers.

2:30PM – 6:00PM
